(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-6, 8-11, and 13-16, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Heo (P.N. 2004/0170393).

Heo discloses a video/audio recording/reproducing apparatus that shows all the limitations recited in claims 1, 3, 8, and 13, including the feature of the first and second recording areas for recording information and management information respectively (See Heo's Figures 1, 2, 10, and 12), the feature of the management information including at least audio coding mode, audio application mode, quantization, number of audio channels, and bit rate as specified in the present claims 1, 3, 8, and 13. With regard to claims 2, 4, 9, and 14, the feature of the recording information includes at least a video and an audio data and the bit rate being the bit rate of the audio data as specified thereof is present in Heo. (See Heo's claims 1-3, and further, see page 4, paragraph [0070]).

With regard to claims 5, 10, and 15, the feature of the first and second recording areas for recording information and management information respectively and the attribute information being recorded in the second recording area as specified thereof is present in Heo. (See Heo's claims 1-3, and further, see page 4, paragraph [0070]).
